CARTA DE LA TRANSDISCIPLINARIEDAD

Celebración Mundial por la Paz

The year 2024 represents the 30th anniversary of the Charter of Transdisciplinarity, adopted at the First World Congress of TD in Arrábida, Portugal, on 6 November 1994, proposed by Edgar Morin, Basarab Nicolescu and Lima de Freitas, signed by the other participants at the congress and subscribed to today by numerous researchers and advanced scientific training organisations from various regions of the world.

The aim of the international celebration is to retrace the path of TD, to analyse its emergence and affirmation in various research centres around the world, and to reflect on the progress and changes in transdisciplinarity over the last 30 years, taking in the first, second and third TD World Congresses, in order to prepare the ground for the fourth TD World Congress.

Peace beyond violence, examined through the TD watermark, from inner peace to the cosmic peace of the whole human family, based on fundamental rights and the essential conditions for the well-being of the Earth, is the key to accessing TD's contributions to overcoming the profound crises of the contemporary world. The transdisciplinary thread of peace points the way to possible scenarios in which conflicts can be resolved through dialogue, not through war, but through the sensitive, transparent and sharing intelligence of Homo Sapiens Pacificus.

In addition, the historical topicality of transdisciplinarity, which the Celebration wishes to highlight, can open up new ways of overcoming the growing dehumanisation of human beings and halting the destruction of the planet in the Anthropocene epoch, for which advanced projects for re-humanisation and ecological transition against the destruction of the planet are being developed.

The international celebration of the Charter of Transdisciplinarity concludes with the proposal and consolidation of the Global Transdisciplinarity Network on the road to the IV World Congress of Transdisciplinarity: a community of knowledge and intelligence to unite institutions, groups, researchers and all those involved in the struggle to generate scenarios of peace, justice, dignity, inclusion and sustainability.
